Office of Legislative Counsel

Thursday -- 18 March 1954

1. Four additional Senators have been added to the sponsorship of the Mansfield Resolution. They are Magnuson (D., Wash.), Jackson (D., Wash.), Langer (R., N. Dak.) and Potter (R., Mich.).
2. Mr. Darden, of the Senate Armed Services Committee staff, informed me that Sen. Saltonstall has asked him to prepare a digest of the Mansfield speech, and that Mr. Dulles' presentation should look toward answering various problems raised by that speech. He felt that Mr. Dulles' statement should be a lengthy one (up to one hour if necessary) prior to questioning, and should explain such things as why people do not know the number of personnel in CIA or the size of its budget as well as the operational matters.
3. Mr. Elliott Richardson, Assistant to Sen. Saltonstall, lunched with Mr. Amory, Mr. Kirkpatrick and myself today, and we discussed at lunch the problems in connection with the Mansfield Resolution for a Joint Committee.
